SWIMMING PACIFIC

The image is a high-angle, top-down view of a swimming pool. A person is swimming in the clear, turquoise water, their arms extended horizontally. They are wearing a light-colored swim cap and a colorful swimsuit. The pool's edge is made of dark blue, textured tiles. On the tiles, there is a woven, heart-shaped bag with a circular opening, a book titled "EAT DRINK LOVE", and two small, round, metallic containers. In the bottom left corner, there are some patterned cushions or towels. The overall scene is bright and summery.
